2. the hosting organisation

AKI / ArtEZ school of Fine Art and Design

- general artistic project of the structure

The Media Art Department of ArtEZ is focused on new media and experiment.

- professional context (structure's team, network, public and private partners...)

The Artschool has intensive connections with the City of Enschede, Residency organization B93 and Artspace "Villa de Bank".

- the territory (economic and social context, natural and cultural heritage...)

Enschede is a small city in the East of the Netherlands, close to the border with Germany. It takes a two hour traintrip from Amsterdam and by car an hour and a half from Dusseldorf. The Artschool is located on the campus of the University of Twente.

- the structure's motives for hosting an artist

AKI / ArtEZ is an international orientated artschool, there are many exchange students around and the school participates in several international projects. MAO 2010/2011 is one of them. The motivation for ArtEZ is to participate in the international projects is the awareness of the need of many professional artists today to operate in an international context.

3. description of the residency

The residency is focused on new media. The visiting artist is encouraged to propose an idea for a project that involves experiment. Rather than fixed idea's we would like to see the artist to arrive at ArtEZ with a project based on an idea as a starting-point of investigation.

- number of artists received

1 artist

- length of the residency

6 months

• proposed dates of the stay

October 2010 till March 2011

• accommodation description

Residency in B93, a studio-building where other Enschede and international artists work. It includes accommodation with own kitchen and bathroom plus a studio to work in. All facilities of the art school are as well available.

• the amount of the grant (monthly)

1100 euros

• the provider of the grant

The Netherland Foundation for Visual Art, Design and Architecture (Fonds BKVB)

• material resources available for the artist (computer, studio, rehearsal room...)

A computer at B93 ( and mainly PC based computers at the Media-department. Video editing-suits, video-studio, audio-studio and interactive computer lab.

• the fields of expression proposed for the residency

- arts vivants / performing art
- arts visuels / visual art
- transdisciplinarité / transdisciplinarity

• the means used to promote the artist's work (exhibition, publishing, performance, public presentation...)

A presentation at Villa de Bank. The city of Enschede provides a budget to make a small publication.
